  - (ii) brought the cooperative into disrepute; or
  - (iii) been contrary to 1 or more of the cooperative principles in section 7 of the Act and in so acting has caused the cooperative harm.

(2) Written notice of the proposed resolution must be given to the member at least 28 days before the date of the meeting at which the special resolution is to be moved, and the member must be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard at the meeting.

(3) If a general meeting is to be called under this section the following procedure applies—

11.(1) If there is a dispute or grievance existing between members, a member or members and the cooperative (the “parties involved”) then—

- (a) all parties must meet to discuss and if possible, resolve the dispute or grievance within the earlier of 14 days after the dispute or grievance arises to the knowledge of all involved, or a party gives notice to the other party’s involved of the dispute or grievance; and
- (b) if the dispute or grievance is not resolved under paragraph (a), then within 10 days of the meeting required under that paragraph taking place a further meeting must be held by all parties involved in the presence of a mutually agreed referee. In the absence of agreement about a referee the meeting must be held in the presence of a referee, whether a member of the cooperative or otherwise, appointed by the board of the cooperative.

(2) The referee must not make a decision binding on the parties but shall conciliate and mediate.

(3) If the dispute or grievance is not settled under subsection (1)(b), all parties must agree to seek resolution within 10 days by the assistance and with the mediation of the Alternative Dispute Resolution Division of the Department of Justice.

(4) (If there is an entitlement to expel a member under the Act, rules, regulations or contract the grievance procedure does not apply unless the members, by special resolution vote for the procedure to apply, or vote for it to apply whilst reserving the right to vote on expulsion if the matter is not resolved by the grievance procedure).

(5) In subsection 11(1)—

“members” does not include independent directors or nonmember employees or non-member officers. [s 82]

Fines payable by members

12.(1) The board may impose on a member a maximum fine of $100.00 for a contravention of the rules.

(2) A fine must not be imposed on a member under subsection (1) unless—

- (a) written notice of intention to impose the fine and the reason for it has been given to the member; and
- (b) the member has been given a reasonable opportunity to appear before the board in person (with or without witnesses), or to send to the board a written statement, for showing cause why the fine should not be imposed.

(2) No member must hold more than 20% of the nominal value of issued share capital of the cooperative other than under section 273 of the Act.

(3) The capital varies in amount according to the nominal value of shares from time to time subscribed.

(4) No share is to be allotted unless at least 10% of the nominal value of the share has been paid. A share must not be issued at a discount.

(5) Shares of the cooperative must not be quoted for sale or purchase at a stock exchange or in another public way (within the meaning of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 (Cwlth)).

(6) Under section 260 of the Act, the cooperative is authorised to require members to lend money to the cooperative under a proposal approved by special resolution of the cooperative.

Liability of members to cooperatives

14.(1) A member is, under section 70 of the Act, liable to the cooperative for the amount, if any, unpaid on the shares held by the member, and any charges, including entry and periodic fees, payable by the member to the cooperative under these rules.

(2) On the death of a member, the member’s estate is subject to the same liability as the member would have been until the member’s personal representative or some other person is registered in the member’s place. [s 66(2)]

(3) The joint holders of a share are jointly and severally liable for any amount unpaid on shares and any charges mentioned in subsection (1).

Calls on shares

15.(1) The board may from time to time make calls on the members for any amounts unpaid on the shares of the members (whether on the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) and not by the terms of issue of the shares made payable at fixed times, but no call can be for more than onequarter of the nominal value of the share or be payable at less than 1 month after the day fixed for the payment of the last call.

(2) Each member must, on receiving at least 14 days' notice of the time and place of payment, pay to the cooperative at the time and place specified the amount called on the shares.

(3) The directors may revoke or postpone a call.

(4) A call is taken to have been made when the resolution of the directors authorising the call was passed and may be required to be paid by instalment.

(5) The joint holders of a share are jointly and severally liable to pay all calls for the share.

(6) If an amount called for a share is not paid before or on the day fixed for payment of the amount, the person from whom the amount is due must pay interest on the amount from the day fixed for the payment of the amount to the time of actual payment at the rate, not more than 8% per annum, the directors decide, but the directors may waive payment of all or part of the interest.

(7) An amount that, under the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable on allotment or at a fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, is for these rules taken to be a call made and payable on the date that under the terms of issue the amount becomes payable, and, if the amount is not paid, all relevant provisions of these rules about payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise apply as if the amount had become payable under a call properly made and notified.

(8) The board may, in relation to the issue of shares, differentiate between the holders in the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.

(9) The board may accept from a member all or part of the money uncalled and unpaid on shares held by the member.

(10) The board may authorise payment by the cooperative of interest on all or part of an amount accepted under subsection (9) until the amount becomes payable, at a rate agreed between the board and the member paying the amount, not more than 8% or another rate fixed by the cooperative by special resolution.

Certificate of shares

16.(1) Every person whose name is entered as a member in the register of members must be given, on application by the member, and without payment, a certificate under the seal of the cooperative specifying the shares held by the member and the amount paid up on the shares.

(2) However, if shares are held jointly by several persons, the cooperative is not to be bound to issue more than 1 certificate, and delivery of a certificate to 1 of the joint holders shall be enough delivery to all.

(3) If a share certificate is defaced, lost or destroyed a duplicate may be issued by the cooperative on payment of a fee, not more than $10.00 and on the terms about evidence and indemnity the board considers appropriate.

Sale of members' shares

17. A member's share may be sold by the cooperative at the request of the member if the share has not been forfeited by the member under the Act. [ss 67, 166, 170, 172]

Transfer and transmission of shares

18.(1) The instrument of transfer of a share must be signed by or for the transferor ("the giver") and the transferee ("the receiver").

(2) The transferor is taken to remain the holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members. [s 169]

(3) Shares must be transferred in the following form or another form approved by the board—

I, A.B. (the transferor) of ..... in the State of ..... in consideration of the sum of $... paid to me by C.D. (the transferee), of ..... in the State of..... transfer to the transferee the share (or shares) numbered ..... in the .....

(name of cooperative)

to hold for the transferee, the transferee's executors, administrators, and assigns, subject to the several conditions on which I hold the same at the time of the execution.

And I, the transferee, agree to take the said share (or shares) subject to the conditions previously mentioned in this document..

Dated this ..... day of ..... 20...

Signed by ....., transferor.

In the presence of ....., witness.

Signed by ....., transferee.

In the presence of....., witness.

(4) A share may not be sold or transferred except—

(a) with the consent of the board, and to a person who is qualified to be admitted to membership of the cooperative under sections 5 and 6; or

(b) as otherwise provided by these rules or the Act. [s 166(1)(c)]

(5) The board may decline to register a transfer of shares to a person not qualified to be a member or of whom they do not approve. The board may also decline to register a transfer of shares on which the cooperative has a lien or charge. If the board refuses to register a transfer of shares it must send notice of the refusal to the transferee within 2 weeks after the day the board declined to register the transfer.

(6) The board of the cooperative must not consent to the sale or transfer of shares which would result in more than the nominal value of shares permitted under section 273 of the Act to be held by a member.

(7) The board may decline to recognise an instrument of transfer unless—

(a) a fee of $10.00 (or the lesser sum decided by the board from time to time) is paid to the cooperative for the transfer; and

(b) the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate (if any) of the shares to which it relates, and the other evidence the board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer.

(8) The board must maintain a record of all transfers made in the proper books of the cooperative.

(9) The board may suspend the registration of transfers during the 14 days immediately preceding the annual general meeting in each year.

Effect of sale, transfer or disposal of shares

19. A member who has sold or transferred, or disposed of the beneficial interest in, the member's shares, or has agreed to do any of those things, can not vote at any meeting of the cooperative.

Forfeiture and cancellations—inactive members

20.(1) The board must, after giving notice under section 130 of the Act, declare the membership of a member who was a member for the period stated cancelled if— [s 125]

(a) the whereabouts of the member are not presently known to the cooperative and have not been known to the cooperative for a continuous period of at least 3 (three) years before that date; or

(b) the member is not presently an active member and has not been an active member at any time in the past 3 (three) years immediately before that time.

(2) The board is to declare the shares of a member forfeited at the same time as the membership is cancelled and the amounts due because of the cancellation and forfeiture must be dealt with and repaid under section 132 of the Act.

(3) The cooperative must, in the approved form, keep a register of memberships cancelled under subsection (1), which must specify the particulars prescribed in schedule 2 of the regulation.

(4) A member may stop his or her membership by service of written notice to the secretary, of the member's resignation from membership, and the amounts due in relation to the member's share are to be repaid to the member in a way adopted for repayment for forfeited shares under section 132 of the Act.

Forfeiture of shares

21.(1) If a member fails to pay a call or instalment of a call by the day appointed for payment, the board may, at any time while the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on the member requiring payment of the unpaid call or instalment, together with any interest which may have accrued.

(2) The notice must name a further day (not earlier than 14 days after the date of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made and must state that, in the event of non-payment at or before the time appointed, the shares for which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.

(3) If the requirements of the notice served under this section are not complied with, any share for which the notice has been given, may at any time (but before the payment required by the notice has been made), be forfeited by a resolution of the board.

(4) The forfeiture must include all dividends declared for the forfeited shares and not actually paid before forfeiture.

Forfeited shares

22.(1) A person whose shares have been forfeited under these rules stops being a member if membership is conditional on the holding of the shares or membership has otherwise been cancelled under the Act. The person nevertheless remains liable to pay to the cooperative all amounts which are (as at the date of forfeiture) payable by him or her to the cooperative for the shares. (this is apart from calls in default).

(2) A statutory declaration in writing by a director of the cooperative stating that a share in the cooperative has been forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, is conclusive evidence of that fact as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. [s 75]

(3) The cooperative must, under section 26, have a charge on the paid up amounts of the forfeited shares and may appropriate those amounts under section 26(2).

Forfeiture for non-payment of subscription

23.(1) The shares of a member whose periodic fee (subscription) under section 7 has not been paid may be forfeited by resolution of the board.

(2) Written notice of the proposed forfeiture must be given to the member at least 14 days before the date of the board meeting at which the resolution for forfeiture of the shares is to be moved and the member must be given an opportunity of being heard at the meeting.

(3) Section 22 applies to the forfeiture.

(4) Subject to section 132 of the Act and subsection (5) payment to the member of any amount due under this section must be made at the time to be decided by the board, but within 1 year from date of forfeiture.

(5) Instead of payment of an amount due to a member whose membership is cancelled, subject to section 132 of the Act, the amount due may be applied as a deposit if the cooperative takes deposits, or the cooperative may allot or issue debentures in satisfaction of the amount, or if the member consents in writing the amount may be appropriated as a donation.

Death of member

24.(1) Subject to section 167(1) of the Act the board must transfer the deceased member's share or interest in the cooperative to—

- (a) the personal representative of the deceased, that is, an executor or administrator of the estate of a deceased member; or
- (b) to the person the deceased's personal representative may specify, in an application made to the cooperative within 3 months after the death of the member.

(2) The board may approve the transfer of a share to a person other than the executor or administrator and in considering whether to approve the transfer the board must consider whether—

- (a) there are reasonable grounds for believing the proposed transferee will be an active member of the cooperative; and
- (b) the proposed transferee is qualified to be a member of the cooperative under these rules; and
- (c) the transfer would increase the proposed transferee's holding in the cooperative beyond that allowed by the Act or these rules. [s 78(b), 166 & 167]

(3) If the total value of the deceased member's share in the cooperative is less than $10 000 or another amount prescribed under the regulation the board may transfer the share under section 79 of the Act if there has not been a grant of letters of administration or of probate of the deceased's will. [s 79]

(4) In accordance with section 80 of the Act, the board must decide the value of the shares and interest of a deceased member as the amount paid up on the shares together with any other amounts due to the deceased member less any amounts owing to the cooperative by the deceased member. In the event of the shares being forfeited the amounts due because of the forfeiture must be dealt with and repaid within 1 year.

Dealings of members with cooperatives

25.(1) The cooperative may, under section 73 of the Act, make a contract with a member requiring the member to have specified dealings with the cooperative for a fixed period.

(2) The contract may require a member—

- (a) to sell products through or to the cooperative; or
- (b) to obtain supplies or services through or from the cooperative; or
- (c) to pay to the cooperative specified sums as liquidated damages for any failure to comply with a requirement authorised by this section.

(3) The sum, if any, specified as liquidated damages is to be considered as a debt due to the cooperative and in relation to the debt, the cooperative has, under section 75 of the Act, a charge on each of the following—

- (a) the share or interest in the capital and the credit balance and deposits of the member or past member;
- (b) any dividend, interest, bonus or rebate payable to the member or past member;

(2) The charge may be enforced at any time after 7 days notice to the member or past member, by appropriation by the cooperative of the capital, interest or deposit subject to the charge. Any share for which capital has been appropriated must be cancelled.

(3) The cooperative may sell in the way the directors consider appropriate all or any shares on which the cooperative has a charge. However, no sale can be made unless some amount for which the charge exists is payable at the date of the sale. Also no sale can be made until the end of 14 days after a written notice (stating, and demanding payment of, the part of the amount for which the charge exists as is payable at the date when the notice is given) has been given to the registered holder of the share or the person entitled to it because of death or bankruptcy. The notice must indicate that on failure to make payment of the amount demanded within the time stipulated the shares will be sold by the board.

(4) If the highest offer received by the board is less than the amount paid up on shares to be sold, the board must, before accepting the offer, notify the member of the receipt of the offer and the amount of the offer, and of the board's intention to accept the offer at the end of 14 days, if no payment is made before then to the cooperative of all amounts for which the charge exists.

(5) From the proceeds of the sale the cooperative may deduct the expenses, if any, associated with the sale and may apply the balance to reduce the liability of the member. However, if a surplus remains after the deduction the surplus is payable to the member whose shares were sold.

Entitlements and liabilities of person registered as trustee, administrator etc

29.(1) A person becoming entitled to be a shareholder because of the death, bankruptcy or the incapacity of the holder is entitled to the dividends and other advantages to which that person would be entitled if he or she were the registered holder of the share or shares. However, before being registered as a member, the person is not entitled to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the cooperative.

(2) A person registered under section 24, 27 or 28 is, while registered, subject to the same liabilities in relation to the share or shares as those to which the dead person, incapable person or the bankrupt person would have been liable if he or she had remained a member with full legal capacity.

(3) The board has the same right to decline or to suspend registration of a share as it would have had for a transfer of a share by the bankrupt or incapacitated person before the bankruptcy or incapacity.

Transfer and transmission of debentures

30.(1) On the written request of the transferor (the "giver") of a debenture, the cooperative must enter in the appropriate register the name of the transferee (the "receiver") in the same way and subject to the same conditions as if the application for entry were made by the transferee.

(2) All general meetings of the cooperative other than the annual general meeting are special general meetings.

(3) If an annual general meeting is not held under subsection (1), the members may, under section 203 of the Act and section 32 of these rules, requisition a meeting.

(4) A meeting requisitioned by members under these rules must be called within 21 days with the meeting being fixed to be held as soon as practicable and held within 2 months after the requisition is served.

(5) If the board does not call a meeting 21 days after the requisition is served, the following provisions apply—

- (a) the requisitioning members (or any of them representing at least half their aggregate voting rights) may call the meeting in the same way as nearly as possible as meetings are called by the board;

Notice of general meetings

33.(1) At least 14 days notice (not including the day on which the notice is served or taken to be served, but including the day for which notice is given) must be given of a general meeting in the way stipulated in section 69 of these rules. Notice must be given to the persons who are, under these rules entitled to receive notices from the cooperative, but the non-receipt of the notice by a member does not invalidate the proceedings at the general meeting. The notice must specify the place, the day, and the hour of the meeting and, for special business, the general nature of that business.

(2) For a special resolution, notice must be given at least 21 days before the meeting. [s 186]

(3) Any member who has a resolution to submit to a general meeting must give written notice of it to the cooperative at least 28 days before the date of the meeting.

(4) The board must have inserted in a notice calling a general meeting any business which a member has notified, before the notice calling the meeting is issued, his or her intention to move at the meeting (and the notification has been made under these rules).

Quorum at general meetings

35.(1) No item of business may be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of members is present when the meeting is considering the item. [s 201]

(2) Unless these rules otherwise state 10 (ten) active members present in person, each being entitled to exercise a vote, constitute a quorum. [s 201]

(3) If within half an hour after the appointed time for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if called on the requisition of members, must be dissolved. In any other case it must be adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place. If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting the members present constitute a quorum.

Chairperson at general meetings

36.(1) The chairperson, if any, of the board must preside as chairperson at every general meeting of the cooperative.

(2) If there is no such chairperson, or if at any meeting he or she is either not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or is unwilling to act as chairperson, the members present must choose someone from their number to be chairperson (until the chairperson attends and is willing to act)

(3) The chairperson may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and must if directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place. However, the only business that can be transacted at any adjourned meeting is the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more notice of the adjourned meeting must be given just as for the original meeting. Apart from this it is not necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at any adjourned meeting.

Standing orders at general meetings

37. The following standing orders must be observed at the cooperative's meetings, subject to any suspension of, or amendment of, or addition to, them adopted for the meeting by the members present at a meeting—

- (b) whenever an amendment to an original proposition is proposed, no second amendment can be considered until the first amendment is disposed of;
- (c) if an amendment is carried, the proposition as so amended displaces the original proposition and may itself be amended;
- (d) if an amendment is defeated, then a further amendment may be moved to the original proposition. However, only 1 amendment must be submitted to the meeting for discussion at one time;
- (e) the mover of every original proposition, but not of an amendment, has the right to reply. Immediately after this the question must be put from the chair. No other member may speak more than once on the same question, unless permission is given for an explanation, or if the attention of the chairperson is called to a point of order;

This is unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by at least 5 members. If no poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book of the proceedings of the cooperative is evidence of the fact. No proof is needed of the number of proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against, that resolution. [s 202]

(4) On a show of hands or on a poll every representative of a corporation, under section 64 of the Act, or every member (not under the age of 18), who is present at a meeting in person or represented by proxy or attorney, has subject to subsection (5), 1 vote. However, no member may vote, or be entitled or eligible to vote, contrary to the Act.

(7) An active member of a cooperative has 1 vote only on a question or motion arising at a general meeting of the cooperative.

(8) For joint membership, the joint members have 1 vote only between them.

(9) In the event of a dispute between joint members as to which member may exercise the vote, (subject to the grant of any proxy or power of attorney) the joint member whose name appears first in the register of members is the one to exercise the vote.

(10) A member's right to vote is a personal right, it is a right to 1 vote (subject to subsection (5)) and is not attached to, or conferred by, any share held by the member in the cooperative. [s 174]

(3) No person can act as a proxy unless the person is an active member of the cooperative.

(4) No person can act as proxy for more than 10 members, unless the proxy acts under an instrument of proxy mentioned in subsection (2).

(7) A vote given under the terms of an instrument of proxy or of a power of attorney is valid despite the previous death or unsoundness of mind of the principal, the revocation of the instrument (or of the authority under which the instrument was executed) or the power, if no intimation in writing of the death, unsoundness of mind or revocation has been received by the cooperative at the registered office before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the instrument is used or the power is exercised.
